

Try a Transparent System at Home!

Transparent Home Audition Kits are the easy way to experience first-hand the improvements possible with Transparent cable in any home system.

Are you ready to upgrade your home audio system but aren't sure where to start? Have you thought about upgrading your cabling? We can prove that Transparent Audio Cable is your path to richer, fuller music with a Transparent Home Audition Kit! Available at most authorized Transparent dealers, Home Audition Kits allow you to experience the improvements cabling a system entirely with Transparent can make to your home audio system.

Transparent Home Audition Kits come in 4 different performance levels: High Performance, PLUS, SUPER, and ULTRA. Each includes speaker cables, balanced and single-ended interconnects, power cords, HDMI, USB, and digital cables, and adapters. The Audition Notebook in the kit contains product information and listening tips to help you conduct the best home auditions possible.

Revive your favorite system by installing Transparent Cable between every component and experience a level of richness and musical involvement you never thought possible in your own home. Please use our dealer locator to find a Transparent dealer near you and ask about Loaner Kit availability. You can also call us directly. We will be happy to connect you with the nearest Transparent dealer who can help you have a complete Transparent home audition experience.

Happy Listening!
